Content Writer - Web Developer

HERE'S MY STORY:

I'm a content writer who also has a keen interest in web designing and development.

Edited and wrote articles for a bi-monthly magazine (IT UNLIMITED) in college, so good at working with short deadlines and covered time-sensitive material.

Also developed an online web application to minimize the offline work of event management, so can make websites and add content relevant to the project.

Can work remotely and provide strong support to the team. :)
