Shirodhara Automatization

- In a life filled with stress and work, everybody needs to pause their life for an hour and boost their energy.
- We realized that in order to escape to an extended peace of mind, Shirodhara is a go-to-place for everyone in this world. Our project is just one of the providers of such treatment.
- The flexibility of our project is enormous, it performs every basic function that a trained human does while being cost-effective and eco-friendly. Most importantly, this therapy can be performed from anywhere to anyone.

European Soccer Regression Analysis

- Analysed the dataset(source:kaggle) having 25,000 matches and 10,000 player details to find the overall rating of a player.
- Implemented Linear Regression and Decision Tree Regressor models on the dataset and found the Decision Tree Regressor model better as it gave a Root Mean Square Error (RSME) of 1.44 as compared to 2.8 of Linear Regression for a Test set that has a mean of 68 for rating.
