Bachelors in Economics. Looking forward to pursue career in Finance and Marketing, I also got an internship at Netscribes. I believe that my strong educational background in Economics has enabled me to make an effective contribution as a financial analyst to the organization. My skills in market analysis, product knowledge, financial analysis and working knowledge of various applications like Microsoft office (Excel, Access) and Tableau are some of the other essential assets that I would bring to your firm. Looking for opportunities to expand my knowledge and experience in Finance domain
